

Earth Day Recycled Art Contest Judge

Rita Whitney

Rita Whitney is a York Artist who recently took on the position of Director of Communications and Engagement at the York County Cultural Alliance. She uses her role to be an advocate and convener for the York County artist community.

Rita serves on the ReSource York and Grotto Community Center boards, both of which help to bring new creative opportunities to life. She is also the Board Chair for Create Karma, a leadership and wellness training organization. Each of these community organizations serve to bring people together to create a more equitable and vibrant environment in and around York City.
